

One another

gestures of grace that draw us together
in an age of divisiveness

One another

gestures of grace that draw us together
in an age of divisiveness

One another

gestures of grace that draw us together
in an age of divisiveness

One another

gestures of grace that draw us together
in an age of divisiveness

7 ONE ANOTHERS

- 1) Accept One Another—Rom 15:5-7
Welcome one another as equal members in the family of God.
- 2) Confess your sins to One Another—James 5:16
Leave a life of secrecy and arrogance to embrace a gospel-driven life of fellowship and humility.
- 3) Honor One Another—Rom 12:1-10
We are to be a church community that deliberately sees and appreciates the value of one another.
- 4) Forgive One Another—Col 3:12-14
Forever forgiven people become forever forgiving people.
- 5) Serve One Another—Gal 5:13-15
True freedom is being so satisfied in God, we volunteer to become a slave of love in service to others.
- 6) Exhort One Another—Heb. 3:12-14
To stay in Christ forever means calling one another to Christ today.
- 7) Encourage One Another—1 Thess. 5:11-28
Find strength together to serve Christ faithfully in a divisive world.

- Which of these seven commands of community-building are you and your group currently the best at? Why?

- Which of these seven commands are you and your group the worst at? Why?

- What can you do to get better?

- How can you encourage others to grow in their loving one another?

one
others

7 ONE ANOTHERS

- 1) Accept One Another—Rom 15:5-7
Welcome one another as equal members in the family of God.
- 2) Confess your sins to One Another—James 5:16
Leave a life of secrecy and arrogance to embrace a gospel-driven life of fellowship and humility.
- 3) Honor One Another—Rom 12:1-10
We are to be a church community that deliberately sees and appreciates the value of one another.
- 4) Forgive One Another—Col 3:12-14
Forever forgiven people become forever forgiving people.
- 5) Serve One Another—Gal 5:13-15
True freedom is being so satisfied in God, we volunteer to become a slave of love in service to others.
- 6) Exhort One Another—Heb. 3:12-14
To stay in Christ forever means calling one another to Christ today.
- 7) Encourage One Another—1 Thess. 5:11-28
Find strength together to serve Christ faithfully in a divisive world.

- Which of these seven commands of community-building are you and your group currently the best at? Why?

- Which of these seven commands are you and your group the worst at? Why?

- What can you do to get better?

- How can you encourage others to grow in their loving one another?

one
others

7 ONE ANOTHERS

- 1) Accept One Another—Rom 15:5-7
Welcome one another as equal members in the family of God.
- 2) Confess your sins to One Another—James 5:16
Leave a life of secrecy and arrogance to embrace a gospel-driven life of fellowship and humility.
- 3) Honor One Another—Rom 12:1-10
We are to be a church community that deliberately sees and appreciates the value of one another.
- 4) Forgive One Another—Col 3:12-14
Forever forgiven people become forever forgiving people.
- 5) Serve One Another—Gal 5:13-15
True freedom is being so satisfied in God, we volunteer to become a slave of love in service to others.
- 6) Exhort One Another—Heb. 3:12-14
To stay in Christ forever means calling one another to Christ today.
- 7) Encourage One Another—1 Thess. 5:11-28
Find strength together to serve Christ faithfully in a divisive world.

- Which of these seven commands of community-building are you and your group currently the best at? Why?

- Which of these seven commands are you and your group the worst at? Why?

- What can you do to get better?

- How can you encourage others to grow in their loving one another?

one
others

7 ONE ANOTHERS

- 1) Accept One Another—Rom 15:5-7
Welcome one another as equal members in the family of God.
- 2) Confess your sins to One Another—James 5:16
Leave a life of secrecy and arrogance to embrace a gospel-driven life of fellowship and humility.
- 3) Honor One Another—Rom 12:1-10
We are to be a church community that deliberately sees and appreciates the value of one another.
- 4) Forgive One Another—Col 3:12-14
Forever forgiven people become forever forgiving people.
- 5) Serve One Another—Gal 5:13-15
True freedom is being so satisfied in God, we volunteer to become a slave of love in service to others.
- 6) Exhort One Another—Heb. 3:12-14
To stay in Christ forever means calling one another to Christ today.
- 7) Encourage One Another—1 Thess. 5:11-28
Find strength together to serve Christ faithfully in a divisive world.

- Which of these seven commands of community-building are you and your group currently the best at? Why?

- Which of these seven commands are you and your group the worst at? Why?

- What can you do to get better?

- How can you encourage others to grow in their loving one another?

one others